Presentation Overview

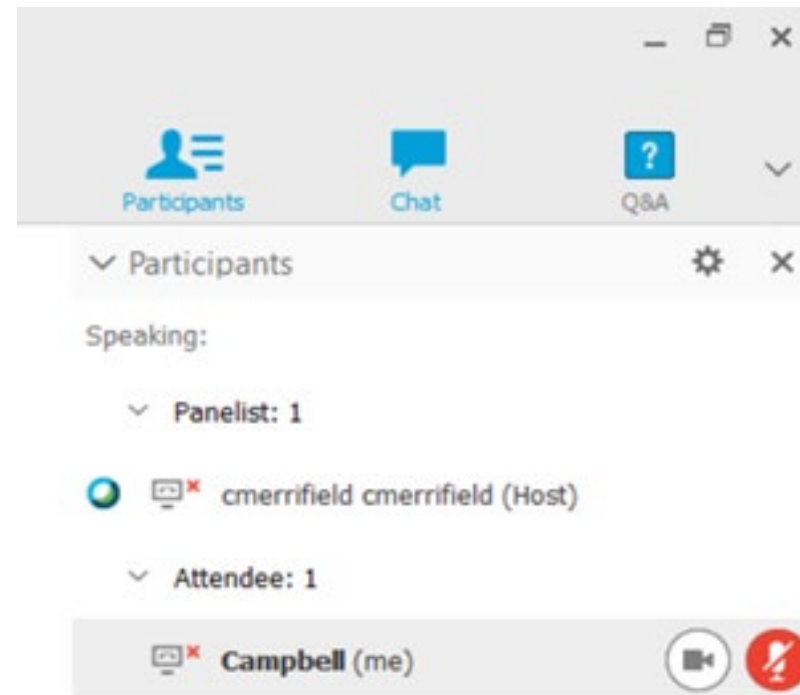

- Webex App Landing page— what can I do?

The screenshot displays the Cisco Webex Training application window. The title bar reads "Cisco Webex Training". Below the title bar is a menu bar with options: File, Edit, Share, View, Audio, Participant, Session, Breakout, and Help. The main content area is divided into two sections. On the left, under the "Session Info" tab, the topic is "practice". Below this, the host is listed as "cmerrifield cmerrifield", the audio conference details are "US Toll +1-415-655-0001" with a link to "Show all global call-in numbers", the access code is "146 929 7870", the attendee ID is "39", and the training session number is "146 929 7870". On the right, there are three tabs: "Participants", "Chat", and "Q&A". The "Participants" tab is active, showing a list of participants. Under "Speaking:", there is a "Panelist: 1" section with "cmerrifield cmerrifield (Host)" and an "Attendee: 1" section with "Campbell (me)". Below the participant list are icons for audio, video, and chat controls. The "Chat" tab is also visible, showing a "Send to:" dropdown set to "Host" and a "Send" button. The "Q&A" tab is also visible, showing an "Ask:" dropdown set to "All Panelists" and a "Send" button. At the bottom of the window, there is a status bar with the Cisco Webex logo, session number "146 929 7870", and a message: "You are participating in this audio conference using your computer." The Windows taskbar is visible at the very bottom, showing the search bar and various application icons.
